

1. What are historical sources?
 2. Identify 5 or 6 different historical sources.
 3. Define history.
 4. History is never complete - explain, using examples
 5. Distinguish between Individual Past and Collective Past, giving examples
 6. History is open to interpretation. Explain, giving examples.
 7. What is the historical method of research?
 8. What is the role of Historic Sites, Archives, and Museums in preserving history.
 9. Distinguish between primary and secondary sources of historical information. Give examples.
 10. Distinguish between archival material and artifacts. Give examples.
-  If you haven't already done so, reading Chapter 1 would certainly help reinforce the material covered in class.