

Social Studies 8

Chapter 5: Lifestyles In The Nineteenth Century

Name:

Instructions: Follow along in chapter five and answer the following questions as you go.

Chapter Introduction

1. What are the five things that are included in a person's lifestyle?

1
2
3
4
5

2. Examine the painting on page 97 of the text. Complete the following table as you study the painting.

Title of the painting
Setting
Who are the people?
What are they doing
What aspect of lifestyle is this?

Family Life

- [illegible]

5. Complete the following table showing a typical weekly menu for a Newfoundland home.

Day	Dinner	Supper
Monday
Tuesday
Wednesday
Thursday
Friday
Saturday
Sunday

Entertainment/Recreation

6. Describe each of the following social activities that people in nineteenth century Newfoundland took part in. Why do you think these were important to daily life?

A. Storytelling –

B. Singing/playing music/dancing

C. Playing cards

D. Annual celebrations (eg. Bonfire Night)

E. Copying pans

7. Analyze the painting on page 103. Complete the following table.

Title
Setting
What are the people doing?
Suggest another title for the painting.
How do you feel about this painting?

8. Describe how people in Newfoundland celebrated Christmas. In your description, be sure to include the following key words – foods, , black junk, mumming and nalujuit.

9. Do a comparison of children's sports and games from the nineteenth century with those of today.

	Nineteenth Century	Modern Day
Examples of Games
Where played (indoors or outdoors)
Mostly Played with a group or alone
Types of required skills (most physical or mental)

Community Life

10. Describe how churches became involved in daily community life in the nineteenth century.

11. Healthcare in Newfoundland today is much better than it was in the 1800's. Decide whether or not you agree with this statement and provide evidence and reasons for your opinion.

Connecting People And Communities

12. Complete the following table analyzing the need for communication and transportation technologies in Newfoundland.

19 th Century Innovations In Newfoundland And Labrador
Innovation	Why It Was Needed
Transatlantic Cable
Telegraph System
Marconi's Wireless
Coastal Steamship
Mail Service
Railway

